TOOK HER LIFE AT COUNTY HOME

Mrs. Margaret Hepler, a Patient for the Past Week, Takes her Life by Hanging. Found Shortly Afterward. Other Deaths.

The dead body of Mrs. Margaret S. Hepler was found at half past four this morning hanging from an iron bar in a room in the insane department of the County Home. Mrs. Hepler was a daughter of John Leas, of York street, and was aged about 49 years.

For some years she resided in Reading and was engaged as a nurse. Ten days ago Mrs. Hepler came to Gettysburg, suffering from nervous prostration, and it was deemed best to place her at the County Home. This morning the body was found by Mrs. Charles Strasbaugh, the night nurse, about half past four. It was still warm and the deed was evidently committed about a half hour previous.

A sheet was used to form the noose and this was tied to an iron bar at the window. The sheet was so long that Mrs. Hepler was compelled to hang in a kneeling position in order to allow the carefully made noose to do its work, and she could have saved herself even after adjusting it, had she cared to do so. Upon discovering the body Mrs. Strasbaugh summoned help thinking that life might not be extinct but examination showed that death had resulted.

Mrs. Hepler leaves her father and the following brothers and sisters, John Leas, of Littlestown; Walter Leas, of route 9 Gettysburg; Miss Louisa Leas and Miss Ella Leas, at home; Mrs. Anna Fleck, of Riegelsville.

The funeral will be held from the home of her father, John Leas, 254 York street, Saturday afternoon at half past one. Friends will kindly accept this as a notice of the funeral.

She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Little, of Hunters-town. In 1883 she was married to Mr. Monay and the family moved to Hanover eleven years ago.

Besides her husband, she is survived by two children, Mrs. Wm. H. Little, of Hanover, and Miss Hermie Monay, at home; and one step-son, John Monay, of York.

ASK $100 FOR EVERY BLOCK

That Amount Placed as Proper Subscription for Each Block in Town to Give Toward Tarvia Treatment. Council Meeting.

At an adjourned meeting of the town council on Wednesday evening the highway committee reported a number of subscriptions received from various sections of town to secure the tarvia treatment for the streets. The sum of $100 is placed as the proper amount to be subscribed for one block and few of the subscriptions came up to this figure, so that the question was placed in the hands of the highway committee with instructions to use their discretion as to the streets to be treated.

The first block of Chambersburg street presented a subscription list totaling $61. When informed that it should be increased to $100 the petitioners stated that an effort would be made to secure that amount. The first block on Baltimore street guaranteed $80 and was asked to raise $20 more. Other sections reported subscriptions of varying amounts and in every instance requests will be made to secure the $100 figure.

Council decided to accept the proposition made by Springs avenue residents last week. This provides that the property owners there shall place the street in proper condition to receive oil and shall pay for the application of that material, council simply to pay for the oil. For various reasons it was deemed best to use oil instead of tarvia on that part of town. The work here will extend on Springs avenue from West street to Hay street, which is the foot of Seminary Ridge.

Residents on the second square of York street presented a petition to council asking that the 35 cent tarvia method be used on that block. They presented a subscription list of $317 and said they could increase it to $400, which would be about half the cost of the work. The 35 cent method provides for the tearing up and rolling of the street and the use of tarvia, making a road which, with yearly applications, should remain in good repair for five years. Council expressed the opinion that it did not favor this method, that it hoped to put the 85 cent method on that block in several years if similar work on the first block proved satisfactory, and the petitioners were requested to try to raise $100 for immediate treatment with the 10 cent method to be used elsewhere in town.

Borough Attorney Wible was asked to look up the question of whether or not battlefield guides soliciting automobile tourists could be licensed and made pay a tax.

It was reported that the pavement of John A. Menchey on Breckenridge street, laid several years ago at a grade given by a borough engineer, was three inches below the present grade. Council decided to put the pavement to the present grade at the expense of the borough.

Council adjourned to meet again Tuesday evening at 7:30 when the street matters will receive further attention.

LOCAL AMATEURS CLEARED $50.00

And in Addition Delighted Audience with a Laughable Farce Comedy. Individuals Do Good Work and Get Applause.

"What Happened to Braggs," produced Wednesday evening in Walter's-Wizard by local amateurs, came up to the promises of the High School Alumni Association and provided two hours of enjoyable entertainment in addition to clearing $50 which will be used to purchase further equipment for the manual training department of the school.

The cast was made up entirely of persons who have starred in former plays and they all lived up to their well-earned reputations gained in other productions. Wednesday evening's play was the most pretentious farce-comedy which they have attempted, and that they made good was evidenced by the laughter which time after time rewarded their efforts.

The plot of the play contains many complications, involving a candidate for judge and his double, numerous love affairs, a duel with all parties concerned most unwilling to take part, a newspaper exposure and plenty of other developments to bring about numerous good situations.

John Blocher assumed the role of "Colonel Braggs," the candidate for judge; Ernie Ziegler made up as his double; Earl Diehl was the reporter who furnished the story of Braggs' supposed dissipation which was brought about by the conduct of the double at a military ball. Edgar Miller had the role of editor of the paper, while Marguerite Weaver as his daughter, sought by his reporter was most attractive. Miss Nellie Weaver, daughter of Colonel Braggs and object of the affections of the bogus colonel was delightful while Miss Caroline Bream and Miss Lily Dougherty, the former willing to be the wife of the colonel and the latter with a similar object in life, took their parts most satisfactorily.

Luther Musselman, appeared principally to furnish bullet proof vests to the opponents in the proposed duels. Earl Stallsmith as the ever-welcome colored butler was up to his usual excellence and completed a cast which devoted all its energies to pleasing an appreciative audience.

JOHNSON TO SIGN ALIEN LAND ACT

Governor Telegraphs His Decision to Bryan.

DEEMS IT DUTY TO PEOPLE

California Executive Reviews Measure Claimed of by Japan and Cites Treaty Rights.

Sacramento, Cal., May 15.—Expressing his determination to sign the alien land bill, recently passed by the legislature, Governor Hiram W. Johnson, of California, telegraphed to Secretary of State Bryan a long explanation of the action taken by the legislature.

The message was in answer to the request telegraphed to the governor by Secretary Bryan, at the direction of President Wilson, that the bill be vetoed.

The governor, among other things, says that the occupying of agricultural lands by Orientals and foreigners ineligible to citizenship was for many years a grave problem in California, a problem not fully understood in the east.

Continuing, he says: "In the phraseology of this bill, in those whom it affects, in its scope and in its purpose, we believe we are within our legal and our moral rights, and that we are doing only what is imperatively demanded for the protection and preservation of our state."

"In this enactment we have kept ever in mind our national good faith as evidenced by existing treaties; and our desire and anxiety have been to act only in such fashion as would commend us to our sister states and would justify us to our fellow countrymen."

"The protest to our measure, as your telegram states, comes from the representative of Japan. The bill that is now before me provides substantially in its first sections that all aliens eligible to citizenship under the laws of the United States may acquire real property in the same manner as citizens of the United States, and the second section provides that all aliens other than those mentioned in the first section may acquire real property in the manner and to the extent and for the purpose prescribed by any treaty now existing between the government of the United States and the nation or country of which such aliens are citizens or subjects, and may in addition lease for a period of three years lands for agricultural purposes."

"Thus we have made existing treaties a part of our law, and thus we have preserved every right that any foreign nation by international contract has insisted upon preserving with our national government."

"We of California believe firmly that in our legislative dealings with this alien land question we have violated absolutely no treaty rights. We have shown no discrimination; we have given to no nation the right to be justified in taking offense."

"So, with a strong reliance on the law and the righteousness of our cause, and with due deference and courtesy and with proper consideration for the feelings and the views of others—we had hoped the authorities at Washington would have seen the question as we in this state have been forced to see it—as we must see it or be blind."

"You have suggested to me delay, but this question was very earnestly and fully presented by you to our legislature, and the legislature determined to proceed. My province is to approve or disapprove the law as presented. Our people, as represented in the legislature, have overwhelmingly expressed their desire for the present alien land bill. The vote in the senate was 35 to 2, and in the assembly 72 to 3. With such unanimity of opinion, even did I hold other views, I would feel it my plain duty to sign the bill, unless some absolutely controlling necessity demanded contrary action."

"It is with the highest respect for yourself and the president that I feel it my duty to the state compels me to approve the action of the legislature."

Secretary Redfield Warns Employers.

Washington, May 15.—Manufacturers of the United States had painted for them by Secretary of Commerce Redfield a word picture of what they might expect in cases where the federal government felt obliged to "walk into their offices" to inquire into wage cuts under the new tariff bill.

This was disclosed by Secretary Redfield before the National Association of Employing Lithographers, now in session in Washington. This association had warned congress that the lithographers would have to reduce wages if the Underwood bill became a law.

"If I grasp the public mind at all clearly," said Secretary Redfield, "it holds unfavorable views toward reduction of wages except under the direct necessity. It would not for example approve them for the sake of maintaining profits, least of all as a means of political menace. Furthermore, there is in existence a belief that the reduction of wages is the easy resort of the inefficient and that it is the hallmark of poor management."

"I believe this to be so. As, therefore, the reduction of wages has direct social effects and is the public has the right to efficiency in their factories, servants, the department has undertaken to find out whether the facts do or do not justify the threatened reductions."

Secretary Redfield told the lithographers that he had spoken frankly because he had received from their association a circular referring to the reduction of duty on goods in which they were interested as producers. He warned them that statements based on averages would not be accepted as final. "We should want to know," he continued, "the best and the worst, for averages may be misleading."

GUATEMALA WILL SETTLE

Decides to Pay Long-Standing Claims of Great Britain.

Washington, May 15.—Private advice received here says President Estrada Cabrera, of Guatemala, has acceded to the demands of the British government for a settlement of the long-standing British claims.

The London foreign office recently issued an ultimatum to Cabrera giving him until today to settle, and a British warship was sent on the way to Puerto Barrios to emphasize the demand.

Cumberland, Md., May 15.—Edward Keller and Albert Patterson were killed, and several houses were wrecked when 1700 pounds of dynamite exploded at Eckhart, in the Georges Creek coal district, exploded.

The shock was felt in Cumberland twelve miles from the scene of the accident. Windows in Frostburg, twelve miles away, were broken.

SUFFS SEND BOMB TO MAGISTRATE

Box Filled With Powder For Judge Trying Leaders.

THEIR CAUSE HAS SUFFERED

Striking Evidence of Extensive Operations of Militants and Bad Effect on Cause Brought Out in Court.

London, May 15.—A business-like bomb, addressed to Henry Curtis Bennett, the police magistrate who is hearing the charges against the suffragette leaders, was delivered by a letter carrier at the Bow street police court.

The package was marked "immediate," but, disliking the looks of it, the cautious court officer took it outside and plunged it into a bucket of water.

When the package was opened it was found to contain a tin tobacco box bound with wire and filled with gunpowder, shot and a cartridge. Attached to the cap found on the cartridge was a nail which, if it had been struck, would have fired the bomb and exploded the contents.

Striking evidence of the extensive operations of the militant suffragettes and the bad effect on the women's cause of the outrages committed by them was given on the resumption of the hearings in the police court.

In the prisoners' enclosure were Miss Harriet Rebecca Kerr, Miss Agnes Lake, Miss Rachel Barrett, Mrs. Beatrice Saunders, Miss Annie Kenney, Miss Laura Lennox and the analytical chemist, Clayton. The case of "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond was postponed until July owing to her illness.

Letter carriers and postoffice officials testified of the great damage done to the mails by chemicals and other fluids poured into the public letter boxes.

The former business manager of the "Suffragette" testified as to the loss of circulation by the "Suffragette" after militant acts had been committed. At first 30,000 copies were printed, but the sales were only 17,000. The circulation then dropped to 7500, but 3000 copies were circulated in other ways.

Archibald Bodwin, counsel for the treasury, attempted to learn what he came of the so-called secret service fund of $1,250,000. The accountant who audited the books of the suffragette union was unable to throw any light on the subject.

Miss Annie Kenney, a suffragette leader, received $21 weekly. "General" Mrs. Flora Drummond and Miss Harriet Rebecca Kerr, $17.50; Mrs. Beatrice Saunders and Miss Rachel Barrett, $15, and Miss Laura Lennox, $10. Miss Christabel Pankhurst, who is living in Paris, drew $875 in the last four months.

A receiving order was issued by the bankruptcy court against Frederick Pethick Lawrence, a prominent and wealthy suffragist, who recently severed his connection with the militant suffragette society. The order was made on the application of the director of public prosecutions because Lawrence refused to pay the costs of the prosecution of himself, his wife and Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst at the Old Bailey sessions on a charge of conspiracy last May. The outstanding amount is $3040. The application was heard privately. Lawrence afterward said he was fighting in the public interest against the principle of charging a man who sides with a revolt with the cost of his prosecution.

Schoolboys are helping the militant suffragettes in their reign of terror. Several "bombs" found turned out to be dummies and were traced to the scholars.

What She Missed.
I was not married long before I discovered that my wife was blessed with the ordinary amount of woman's curiosity. One day while I was out she embraced the opportunity to pick the lock of my trunk. I do not know what she expected to find, but I think she must have been disappointed to discover that it was full of nothing but biscuits. When I came home in the evening she said, "George, what is the meaning of all those biscuits that I saw in your trunk today?"
I replied: "Well, we're married now, so I may as well tell you the truth. When we were courting, whenever I told you a lie, which was sometimes necessary, I made a mental note of it. And when I went home I would throw a biscuit into my trunk—one biscuit per lie. If during the day or during the evening I told you half a dozen lies I threw in half a dozen biscuits. So these biscuits simply represent the number of lies I told you during our courtship."
She said: "Well, my goodness! If I had only had your forethought and put aside a little bit of cheese for every one that I told you we should have had enough biscuits and cheese to last us for life."—Exchange.

Ship Shape.
A story is told of an enthusiastic yachtsman the must have been a resident of the British Isles, who presented to his wife a magnificent pair of earrings. In one was set a large and costly emerald and in the other a ruby equally large and even more costly. Thus upon all occasions of ceremony having a nautical aspect and occurring after sundown the lady could appear equipped according to the regulations of the board of trade with port and starboard lights brightly burning.—New York Post.

Fines and Fines.
Years ago in Franklin, Ky., the farmers, coming in from the country, used to insist on tying their teams to the picket fence round the public square. The horses nibbled the fence and put the town to much expense. So to break up the habit the town trustees affixed a large placard to the fence with the following warning inscribed thereon: "Fine to Hitch Here."
Some weeks later a German tobacco buyer, making contracts for his government, drove into Franklin from a nearby town. He read the sign, but nevertheless tied his horse to the fence. A constable arrested him and took him before a magistrate, and he was assessed $10 and costs for violating a town ordinance.
"Of a rotten language!" said the German as he paid over the amount. "Der sign says, 'Fine to hitch here.' Und I think myself it was fine und hitch here! Und den it costs me $10! I leave dis country!"
And he did.—Saturday Evening Post.

U. S. TO PROBE WANAMAKER CASE

Alleged Customs Irregularities Up to Attorney General.

Washington, May 15.—Attorney General McKendall has nearly finished the investigation of the John Wanamaker customs case and will decide in a few days whether any evidence has been disclosed to present to a federal grand jury.
In the closing days of the Taft administration Mr. Wanamaker paid $100,000 to the treasury to settle civil liability for irregularities in assessing duties on imports over a period of about fifteen years. A minor employee in the Philadelphia custom house was permitted to resign with the explanation that he had been careless.
Some treasury officials said that Mr. Wanamaker had paid to the government more than it could have recovered by civil action. Secretary McAdoo when he took office asked the attorney general to find out whether there was no evidence of intent to defraud the government.
An agent of the treasury department is now in Philadelphia investigating the entire affair.

Mr. Wanamaker Won't Discuss Case.
Philadelphia, May 15.—Mr. Wanamaker, when told that there was an investigation of a customs case in which he was said to figure seemed reluctant to discuss the situation, saying he did not wish to try the case in the newspapers and did not care to make any statement until he was officially informed by the authorities in Washington of just what they intended to do. But he added:
"I welcome the fullest investigation of this whole matter, and I have no fear for myself as to the outcome. The government no doubt thinks it has its side, and until I know what that is and what it amounts to I do not care to say anything more."

One of the plotters slipped into the Porter house while the family was out and secreted himself within the child's bedroom.
When the Porters had returned and had gone to sleep the men got the child half way out the nursery window when Porter awoke and hurled a lamp at the vanishing figures. The lamp chimney struck the child's face, severely gashing it.

G. O. P. FIGHTS FOR HEARINGS

No Time Can be Fixed For Vote on Penrose Motion.

MANUFACTURERS GET BUSY

Small Army Appeals For Hearings Before Various Sub-Committees Having Charge of Various Schedules.

Washington, May 15.—An unsuccessful effort was made in the senate to reach a time for taking a vote on Senator Penrose's motion to instruct the committee on finance to hold public hearings on the Underwood tariff bill.
Senator Simmons, chairman of the finance committee, suggested that a time be fixed. Senator Penrose declared he had offered his amendment to the motion to refer the bill in good faith, expecting that prompt action would be had on it. Meantime a debate had sprung up, but he maintained that he was innocent of any intention of action to cause delay.
Replying to the comment by Simmons that the debate was interfering with the deliberations of the finance committee, Penrose remarked that he could well imagine that the public debate was interfering with the private conferences.
"Since I have been a member of the senate I have never engaged in filibustering expeditions," said Penrose. "I have looked upon such tactics with patience and a degree of forbearance and watched the movements of such piratical craft without criticism, knowing that those who were employing such methods were within the rules of the senate and within the precedents, and believed they were doing their best to promote the cause in which they believed."
"There is no disposition on this side to filibuster. All we want is legitimate discussion, and to that we are entitled and upon that we shall insist. While that may take considerable time, there will be no dilatory tactics employed and no filibustering. Of that I am certain."

Penrose suggested that next Monday be fixed as a time for voting, but objection to further discussion was made by Senator Jones, one of the Republicans who intends to vote against the Penrose motion for open hearings, and the question again went over without action.

Senator Penrose practically conceded that his plans for hearings would be defeated.
Senator Penrose's motion for hearings has now become the Penrose-La Follette amendment, the Pennsylvania manufacturer accepted a proposal that manufacturers be required to answer sixteen questions relating to production and transportation costs here and abroad and the percentages of duty that represent cost differences and profits.

A small army of manufacturers appealed for private audiences with the chairman of the finance committee's sub-committees in charge of the various schedules. More than a score of chemical manufacturers waited outside the room where the sub-committee was considering the chemical schedule was in session.

Wool manufacturers besieged Senator Stone's sub-committee armed with protests against the cuts in manufactures of wool. Some of them will be heard.

JACK JOHNSON GUILTY

Negro Prize Fighter Convicted of White Slavery Charge.

Chicago, May 15.—Jack Johnson, champion heavy-weight fighter, was found guilty of violating the federal white-slave law in transporting Belle Schreiber from Pittsburgh to Chicago in 1910.
Johnson was convicted on all seven counts in the indictment. The maximum penalty under the finding is five years' imprisonment or $10,000 fine, or both.

A motion of Assistant District Attorney Parkin that Johnson be ordered confined in the county jail was overruled by Judge Carpenter and the negro was released on bond of $10,000. A motion for a new trial was filed at once.

That the conviction of Johnson is the forerunner of laws forbidding miscegenation was the assertion of Mr. Parkin.
"This verdict will go around the world," he said. "It is the forerunner of laws to be passed in the United States which we may live to see—laws forbidding miscegenation. This negro in the eyes of many, has been persecuted."

New Pitching Record.
St. Louis, May 15.—Walter Johnson holds the record for consecutive scoreless innings, having pitched 55½ innings in succession without allowing a run. He was scored on by St. Louis in the fourth inning of a game in that city. The previous record was held by "Jack" Combs, of the Athletics, who in 1910 pitched 53½ scoreless innings.

Massa Guilty of Wife Murder.
Pottsville, Pa., May 15.—Melina Massa heard the jury pronounce his doom when he was found guilty of first degree murder for shooting his wife. Two other alleged murderers were placed on trial, one for killing his wife and the other for killing a companion in a fight in a speakeasy.

TAKE FIRST STEP IN RATE ADVANCE

Railroads Ask Rehearing on Old Case.

Washington, May 15.—The first step toward an attempt to increase freight rates on the eastern railroads was taken when representatives of fifty-two lines east of the Mississippi and north of the Ohio and Potomac conferred with the interstate commerce commission on a formal application to reopen the "eastern advance case" which was decided against the railroads three years ago.

The commission promised to take up the subject at an early date, but gave no assurance that, even if the case were reopened, it would be able to conduct the necessary public hearings before the summer recess.
The application in effect is to rehear the request for increases which the commission denied about two years ago. The old application asked for a uniform five per cent advance on all through freight on the basis of the New York-Chicago rate.

The petition submitted declares that the carriers are prepared to show that the cost of conducting the business of the carriers has been and is being steadily increased by increases in capital charges; increases in wages; increases in taxes; increased burdens imposed by legislative enactment; elimination of grade crossings; and in various other respects and that existing rates are insufficient to afford just and reasonable compensation and return to the carriers, and the unreasonable law in view of the value of the service afforded thereunder.

U. S. LEAGUE DEAD

Lack of Spectators Causes Collapse After Three Days.

Reading, Pa., May 15.—After an existence of but three days the United States Base Ball league has disbanded. President William Abbott Witman, of this city, threw up the sponge. The first break came on Sunday, when the New York club would not play in Newark because the club had not been paid the guarantee for the Saturday game.

Washington and New York were then dropped and it was decided to go along with six clubs, but as only a few people were on hand for the games, this discouraged all concerned with the league and they quit. Nineteen players are stranded in Reading.

Pasture For Sheep.
As warm weather approaches the ewes with their lambs will soon be leaving the yards for the pastures, and unless proper precautions are taken they are likely to be subjected to certain dangers. One of the most common and harmful of these to the lambs is that of becoming infested with parasite worms to which the ewes commonly become a prey on the fall pastures. While in the yards they void many of these in their excreta and cough and sneeze out others. On account of the nature of their food lambs kept in yards are not in much danger of becoming infected, but on the pastures it is different. Many of the various kinds of worms thus dropped among the young grass have a faculty of crawling an inch or two up the stalks and are eaten by the close biting lambs. This is one of the reasons why constant change of pasture is so desirable for sheep and why pastures become "sheep sick"—Farm and Fire side.

Young Men
like these Schloss-Baltimore suits of ours because they have just the right style and snap to them,

No matter what your age, you can't go wrong on one of these Suits here.
